

A multi-talented entertainer, Rosemary Watson is a singer, voiceover artist, impersonator, comedic actress and writer.

“Funny”
– Paul Bedard US News & World Report

An accomplished pop-jazz/ singer, RW has held numerous steady gigs in some of the world’s finest lounges including The Bellagio, The Paris, Treasure Island, The Four Seasons (Newport, Beverly Hills, Aviara) and The Ritz-Carlton to name a few.

She was featured on The Queen Latifah Show in 2013 and has performed for hundreds of high-end corporate events as well countless concerts and local televised events in LA and San Diego.

After taking some time off from music to raise her young son, she is BACK!

Named by Carol Burnett as one of her favorite new comedians in 2012!
“She’s the whole ball of wax. She’s also a brilliant jazz singer who plays the piano.”
– Carol Burnett

On October 20, 2013, Rosemary made her national TV comedy debut at The Kennedy Center sharing the stage with Tina Fey, Tony Bennett, Tim Conway, Martin Short, Julie Andrews and more to honor the legendary Carol Burnett. Rosemary’s widely-acclaimed impersonations including Hillary Clinton and Diane Sawyer impressed the comedy icon so much she personally requested Rosemary. The two met in DC for the first time! Rosemary’s web videos have been viewed close to a million times.

“Better Than SNL?” –The New York Times

Rosemary has appeared and voiced thousands of ads for TV and Radio and was as a guest and host on HGTV and The Discovery Channel. She can be heard regularly on The Howard Stern Show. She holds a BA in Psychology from UCLA. She currently resides in the greatest city on Earth, San Diego, with her young son.

“Rosemary Watson’s rendition is magical”.
– Joel Hirschhorn, Variety

Some local venues: Dizzy’s, Eddie V’s, US Grant, The Prado, Bijou . . . and hopefully, yours!

